

Women Suffer

much needless pain when they delay using Cardui for their female troubles. Cardui has been found to relieve headache, backache, pain in the side and dizziness arising from deranged organs. It does more than relieve,—if used persistently,—many have written to say that it cured them.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Maxwell Johnson, Tampa, Fla., writes: "Cardui cured me after doctors and everything else had failed. I had been suffering with numb spells ever since I was 16 years old. One day I decided to take Cardui. I have now taken 5 bottles and I can say that it has cured me. I advise all suffering women to give Cardui a long and fair trial."

Mrs. Johnson suffered years. Have you? Do you wish to? But why suffer at all? Take Cardui. Give it a fair trial.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

The body of a young woman who had been strangled to death was found early yesterday evening crammed into a trunk in the room occupied by a young educated Chinaman of the Sunday school type at 782 Eighth avenue, New York. The Chinaman disappeared from his lodging place a week ago, and it was the coroner's opinion that the body had been in the trunk fully that length of time. The efforts of the police are being directed toward establishing the identity of the young woman, and in their investigations they found Henry G. Barnell, who is interested in the Americanization of Chinese. He gave the police a valuable clue in that he described a Chinaman who formerly occupied the room where the body was found. While there is no direct evidence to connect this Chinaman with the murder, the fact that he was the last occupant of the room makes him a valuable witness at least. Barnell said that he knew a young white woman by sight who was interested in work among the Chinese, and he was inclined to think that the name was Sigel, although he was not sure of this. William Leong, the young Chinaman who occupied the room, was well-known in missionary circles in New York. He was frequently seen with Miss Elsie Sigel, the 20-year-old daughter of Paul Sigel, a clerk employed by the board of health and a son of Gen. Franz Sigel, the late civil war veteran and former comptroller of the city of New York.

BALLOON ACCIDENT.

Court Chamberlain Pallizin was killed, his wife was fatally injured, and two other persons suffered severe injuries in a balloon accident at St. Petersburg yesterday.

The balloon General Wannowski, belonging to the army department, in which four officers had a similar misfortune a year ago, ascended yesterday from the military balloon park in charge of Capt. Korbee. In the basket with him were Court Chamberlain Pallizin and his wife and Count Rostoff, director of the private chancellery of Empress Alexandra.

The balloon drifted across the city at an altitude of a little less than a mile and when it was just above the outskirts of the city Count Rostoff, by mistake, pulled the rip cord.

As the gas escaped from the envelope the balloon dropped to the ground and fell in the garden of a country house. M. Pallizin was killed by the fall and his wife suffered terrible injuries. Capt. Korbee escaped with a broken leg and Count Rostoff with severe contusions.

With the exception of Capt. Korbee, the occupants of the basket were experienced members of the newly formed Russian Aero Club.

GOLD EXHIBIT.

The Alaska building at the Seattle exposition opened its gold exhibit yesterday with a display of $400,000 of dust, nuggets and bars. In a few days dust and nuggets valued at $700,000, now on the way from Alaska, will be added, and the United States assay office and the various Alaska miners have promised enough gold to make the yellow pile worth $1,500,000. In the exhibit already assembled are Jagt Lindberg's $3,000 Nome nugget, the largest ever found in Alaska, and 83 other nuggets from Seward peninsula, as well as Mrs. Clarence Berry's $70,000 collection of nuggets, one of which weighs 115 ounces.

GRAFT LAMB BONE IN LEG.

The first operation of the kind in America, the outcome of which will be watched with interest by the medical profession, was performed at Frances Willard Hospital, Chicago, Thursday, when a section of bone from the leg of a lamb was grafted into the right leg of Duane Townsend, to replace a section of shattered tibia. Townsend is an elevator operator and was taken to the hospital several days after an accident in which he suffered a compound fracture of his right leg. Amputation was at first decided on. Later Dr. Cassius C. Rogers was called in consultation and the lamb graft was decided upon. This operation never has been attempted more than four or five times before.

THE GUBERNATORIAL CONTEST.

Judge William Hodges Mann, of Notaway, at Chester yesterday assailed Mr. Tucker's management of the Jamestown Exposition, and Harry St. George Tucker, at Waynesboro, declared that Judge Mann uses "corporate eyeglasses when he views public questions in Virginia." Judge Mann's speech was principally devoted to a discussion of the permanent improvement of the public roads, in connection with which he advocated the purchase, by the state, of quarries to be worked by the convict, and crushed stone to be furnished to the counties without cost; to the school system, bringing out the fact that he was the patron of and had secured the passage through the Senate of the high school bill, which had resulted in the establishment of 251 high schools in the rural districts in the past three years; and the temperance question. Judge Mann denied, with much emphasis, Mr. Tucker's charge that he had made any deal with the liquor people, or if he had not, that his friends or some of them had done it for him.
